WELCOME TO CYS SENSATIONS!

The strength of a military child is often a source of inspiration to us all. They demonstrate remarkable resilience in the face of transition and are of immense support to their active duty parents. However, the life of a military child has its own unique challenges. Moving to a new city, starting a new school, making new friends, and dealing with the separation of a loved one can be difficult. For adults, keeping the mind and body occupied and exploring new hobbies are concrete ways to deal with the stress of transition and separation. Children are no exception. Get kids involved in sports and/or other activities they enjoy.

Help them make new friends and meet new people by encouraging their involvement in extracurricular activities. Child & Youth Services (CYS) is committed to helping Families through times of transition and separation. We offer many programs and activities to keep your child/youth actively engaged, as well as helping them to gain a positive self-concept, while learning new and exciting things. Whether your child is interested in sports, music, martial arts, or perhaps they simply need a social environment to interact with others their own age, CYS has a program for you.

Teens can take transitions and deployments particularly hard. Fort Hood Youth Centers have many programs to help them through these difficult times. The Youth Sponsorship program links youth who are new to the area up with a sponsor to show them the ropes and introduce them to their new community. Programs such as Smart Girls and Passport to Manhood encourage a positive self-image. Teen Resiliency Workshops teach skills that will be beneficial for a lifetime. Whether your teen is into computers, cooking, athletics, crafts or robotics, the youth centers have activities for everyone.

Make CYS a part of your Family's transition.
We stand ready to support you and your Family!

Sincerely,

Sheila R. Curtis
Chief, Child & Youth Services (CYS)

School is out for summer break! Students think it is time to put away the books and relax for some fun. If you allow your students to “just hang out,” they may fall victim to “Summer Slide” or the loss of knowledge and skills acquired during the school year. Students who do not stay engaged in summer learning can lose an average of two months’ worth of grade-level math, reading and writing skills. Summer is the perfect time for students to discover that learning and education is not limited to the classroom. Child & Youth Services (CYS) can assist with this since they offer interesting and enriching summer activities to keep students of all ages engaged in learning through new experiences, fun activities and adventures. School Aged students have the opportunity to enroll in summer camp, which includes field trips and interesting activities packed with engaging experiences and fun.

They will be having so much fun they may not even realize they are learning. Summer is the perfect time for middle and high school students to explore personal skills, career, and college interests. CYS Youth Centers offer summer college virtual tours, giving students an in depth look at opportunities offered at various colleges. Students can also take advantage of volunteer opportunities, learn about resume building and using new experiences to broaden their skills. Check with the School Age Centers and Youth Centers to get a schedule of activities for the summer months. If you are interested in more information on what is available in the area for your students and preventing the “Summer Slide,” call the CYS School Liaison Office at (254) 288-7946, or email us at usarmy.hood.imcom-fmwrc.mbx.slo@mail.mil. You can also stop by our offices in person at the Shoemaker Center, Bldg. 36000, Suite 101.

Academic Tutoring is available at www.tutor.com/military.

CYS School Liaison Services

(254) 228- 7946 • BLDG. 36000 DARNALL LOOP • Hood.ArmyMWR.com/programs/school-liaison-officer

Child & Youth Services School Liaison Officers (SLOs) work with, and help support, nine surrounding school districts in the Fort Hood area. These include Belton, Copperas Cove, Florence, Gatesville, Jarrell, Killeen, Lampasas, Salado, and Temple.

Are you concerned about your child’s education and ensuring a smooth transition for each PCS? Then Go to the SLOs!

The CYS SLOs are the Army’s designated “point person,” responsible for serving as the liaison between Families, local school districts and various other community partners in education to promote quality education and academic support for military children and youth. They provide information on the education process and assist parents in maneuvering through the school system. While CYS SLOs are not advocates, they are here to inform and link military Families to the individual, group, or other resource that can hopefully address and resolve the issue. They also provide necessary tools to empower parents to be advocates for their children’s education.

For assistance, please call the CYS School Liaison Office at 254-288-7946, email usarmy.hood.imcom-fmwrc.mbx.slo@mail.mil, or visit in person at Bldg. 36000 Darnall Loop from 7:30am-4:30 pm on Monday-Friday.

REQUESTING CHILD CARE?

"Each School Age Care center makes sure to keep the children involved through many different activities, such as STEM projects and 4H programs, just to name a few."

Feature Article Requesting Child Care

By: Emily Perri

Do you need full-day child care or before and/or after school care? What about summer camp? Well, Fort Hood Child & Youth Services has you covered. First and foremost, you will need to submit a child care request through MilitaryChildCare.com. What is MilitaryChildCare.com you ask? MilitaryChildCare.com is a Department of Defense (DoD) website that provides an online gateway for Families to request military-operated or military-subsidized child care options worldwide, across all services. The site allows Families to create a household profile, search child care options at their specific installation, view photos of child care facilities, including Family Child Care Providers, submit child care requests and manage those requests from anywhere at any time. Child care options include full-day care for infants to preschool age and school age care children in grades kindergarten through fifth.

Families of infants to preschool age children can submit full-day care requests that accommodate their busy military schedule, with child care being offered Monday through Friday from 0530-1800. On MilitaryChildCare.com, Families will see our five full-day child development centers, conveniently located throughout the installation, as well as our Family Child Care Providers, which are in many of the neighborhoods that Families themselves reside. Our Child Development Services program offers a structured day for children to develop their social, emotional, physical, language and many other life skills through our newly implemented Teaching Strategies Gold Curriculum, which is aligned with preparing children for the Common Core State Standards.

On MilitaryChildCare.com, Families will also have the option to submit before and after school requests for their children in grades kindergarten through fifth who attend elementary school on the installation. There are five School Age Care centers that are specifically designated for each elementary school on Fort Hood. Each School Age Care center makes sure to keep the children involved through many different activities, such as STEM projects and 4H programs, just to name a few. During the summer, all military Families, whether on the installation or off, can submit a request for summer camp at specifically designated facilities. Our summer camps are themed and loaded with many different activities and to keep the children active and involved all summer long.

Once Families have submitted their request for child care on MilitaryChildCare.com, patrons are able to see an Anticipated Placement Time, assisting Families with planning for child care. Spaces are then offered based on a structured priority system in accordance with DoD policy. As spaces are offered, Families will come to Parent Central Services, located in the Shoemaker Center (36000 Darnall Loop, Suite 101 on the 1st Floor) in order to complete registration and accept the child care space. If space is not available for the child's age group on Fort Hood, the Family can apply for Army Fee Assistance and receive support in their off post child care search by visiting ChildCareAware.org. So if you are needing any type of child care services, make sure to submit your request on MilitaryChildCare.com today.
