WHO ARE Military Family Life Counselors (MFLCs) AND WHAT DO THEY DO?

MFLCs are

- Masters or Doctorate-level licensed counselors specializing in child and youth behavioral issues.
- Available at no cost to assist children and youth, parents, family members and staff of child and youth programs.
- Available to provide short-term, non-medical counseling support.

ISSUES ADRESSED BY MFLCs

- School adjustment
- Deployment and separation
- Reunion adjustment
- Sibling and parent-child communication
- Behavioral concerns
- Fear, grief and loss

HOW DO MFLCs MAKE A DIFFERENCE?

MFLCs Provide a wide range of support to military children and youth, family members and staff who work with children by

- Engaging in activities with children and youth.
- Providing behavioral interventions in classrooms, at camps, and in Child Development Centers to assist staff in setting and managing boundaries.
- Model behavioral techniques and provide feedback to staff.
- Being available to parents and staff to discuss interactions with children and other concerns.
- Facilitating psycho-educational groups.

Services are private and confidential with the exception of child abuse/neglect, domestic abuse and other duty-to-warn situations.
