MEMORANDUM FOR CHILD AND YOUTH SERVICES CHILDCARE PATRONS

SUBJECT: Reopening of Child and Youth Services Programs – Phase One

1. Effective Monday, 18 May 2020, Fort Hood's Child and Youth Services (CYS) programs will begin a phased reopening of one school age care (SAC) and two additional child development center (CDC) facilities.
2. Based on the requirement for CYC to implement the practice of social distancing measures, there will be a reduction in the number of available child care spaces in each facility. During this initial phase one of reopening, the priority for child care will be afforded to children of previously approved mission essential in support of Fort Hood COVID-19 and CYC enrolled patrons in the following military Family types as defined by Department of Defense priority:
 - a. Active Duty Combat Related Wounded Warrior (priority 1A)
 - b. Child and Youth Direct Care Employee – Single/Working Spouse (priority 1B)
 - c. Single/Dual Active Duty and Single/Dual Guard/Reserve on Orders (priority 1C)
3. Each patron who meets these eligibility requirements will be notified by CYC staff in order to share child care location and other pertinent details. Any future requests for consideration of mission required status will be referred for my decision.
4. The point of contact for this memorandum is Ms. Sheila R. Curtis, Chief, Child & Youth Services at (254) 287-9833.
