Fort Hood Chief of Child and Youth Services

Welcome to CYS Sensations!

Child & Youth Services knows the importance of health and fitness and teaching children at an early age to embrace a healthy lifestyle. It has never been more important to focus on creating habits that will provide life-long benefits.

As soon as infants become mobile, they are on the move and demonstrate a natural love of being active. Every school playground you pass is filled with children running and playing, continuing this passion for fitness they do not even realize they have. As they get older, cell phones and video games take over and they begin to lose their motivation to be active. To combat this change in lifestyle, CYS encourages all children to keep moving and to see the fun in healthy living.

Sports and outside activities are a great way to keep kids active, while learning about sportsmanship, teamwork and setting personal goals. Outdoor activities are also a great way to allow kids to have fun together, while still safely social distancing. Youth Sports & Fitness (YS&F) offers individual sports, as well as many popular team sports. They also offer a number of camps and clinics during the summer.

YS&F is proud of their many partnerships, including the Killeen Independent School District's Health and Wellness Fair, the Paralympics, as well as the Resiliency Campus and Army Wellness Center. The Tri County Partnership with Killeen, Harker Heights and Copperas Cove provides youth a chance to play against their peers in the local communities. Middle and high school basketball tournaments are held, with six middle schools and nine high school teams competing for the best in the area.

We invite you to join CYS and YS&F in inspiring a love of health and fitness in your child.

We thank you for the opportunity to be part of yourchild's growth and development.

Sincerely,
Sheila R. Curtis
Chief, Child & Youth Services (CYS)

Fort Hood Child and Youth Services

Spring Break is quickly approaching and testing season will follow. Even though our students may need a “break” they will benefit from maintaining a focus on their academics. In order to support our students there are several websites available to assist in academic test preparation so they are ready when the State of Texas Assessment for Academic Readiness (STAAR) is given. The Texas Education Agency has a link to connect students to test information and practice test sites: <https://tea.texas.gov/student.assessment/staar>. This page includes links to assessments for Reading and Mathematics, grades 3-8; Writing grades 4 and 7; Science grades 5 and 8; Social Studies grade 8; and end-of-course (EOC) assessments for English I, English II, Algebra I, Biology and U.S. History. This gives students and parents the opportunity to familiarize themselves with the test format and sample questions. There is a tab for Released Tests to allow students to practice taking the test and answers supplied support a check on skill level.

Tutor.com/military is a very helpful website that can assist students with support in several academic areas as well as taking practice tests for the ACT or SAT. Tutor.com is a resource that has given support to military connected students for many years. The tutors assist grade levels kindergarten through college, and over 80 subject areas, twenty-four hours seven days a week. The program can also review a course paper to assist with corrections and will allow the user to scan in homework. Parents can also check in to look over any communications between the tutor and their student to ensure security.

Spring is the time for SAT and ACT Testing for many students. Registration for these tests is ongoing throughout the year. The next registration deadline for SAT is 12 Feb 2021 for the 13 Mar 2021 test. The next ACT registration deadline is 08 Jan 2021 for the 06 Feb 2021 test administration. There is more information regarding COVID-19 and the testing schedule at <https://blog.prepscholar.com/act-rescheduled-covid-19-coronavirus>. If you need more information regarding the dates, please call the CYS School Liaison Office (SLO) (254) 288-7946 or email the address at the end of this information.

We are here to assist with transition needs but more importantly to assist with your military student's academic success. Enjoy the Spring Break and go back to school with more knowledge and a lower level of test anxiety.

CYS School Liaison Services

School Liaison Services Child & Youth Services School Liaison Officers (SLOs) work with, and help support, the nine surrounding school districts in the Fort Hood area. These include Belton, Copperas Cove, Florence, Gatesville, Jarrell, Killeen, Lampasas, Salado, and Temple.

Are you concerned about your child's education and ensuring a smooth transition for each PCS? Then Go to the SLOs!

The CYS SLOs are the Army's designated "point person," responsible for serving as the liaison between Families, local school districts and various other community partners in education to promote quality education and academic support for military children and youth. While CYS SLOs are not advocates, they are here to inform and link military Families to the individual, group, or other resource that can hopefully address and resolve the issue. They also provide necessary tools to empower parents to be advocates for their children's education.

By: Terri Jones

As many of you are very busy with getting back into a routine after the holiday breaks, please remember how amazing our Fort Hood community is and the helpful resources available in our area. The area school districts share in this partnership with Child & Youth Services (CYS), bringing military Families a strong and connected community of support for each child's educational success. The Fort Hood CYS School Liaison Officers work with the following school districts in the Fort Hood Community: Belton, Copperas Cove, Florence, Gatesville, Jarrell, Killeen, Salado, and Temple Independent School Districts. These districts are committed to supporting your student's academic success. Regardless of where we come from, each of us has definitive goals for our children, and that is to nurture their growth and help them reach their full potential. CYS would like to partner with you, as parents, and invite you to take an active role in helping your child reach his/her educational goals.

An informed parent is an involved parent. Your involvement in your Family and schools is an important piece to this puzzle. You need to depend on information on schools, activities, and resources to support your Family as it grows, changes and transitions. CYS School Liaison Officers are here to help you make informed decisions regarding your child's education, whether public, private or homeschool.

Each year, a Schools Council Meeting is held to provide an opportunity for school districts, the installation and Families to work toward a successful educational experience for all Military connected students. This is a part of our Partners in Education (PIE) process.

This is a continued commitment to education and ensures that Families are better informed and prepared to make important decisions for their students. This process also provides the opportunity for community collaboration to increase awareness and enhance methods to support military connected students. The meeting is open to the public and also provides information and updates on current topics relevant to military students.

Any issues submitted from the community are given to the Schools Council Working Groups. These groups are made up of school district staff, Fort Hood agency members, Soldiers and community members. The categories are Special Education, Student Success, and Higher Education. Each Working Group meets to discuss, brainstorm, and collaborate resolutions for the issues, which are presented at the annual Fort Hood Education Summit.

The Education Summit is an executive level meeting and is by invitation only. Informational breakout sessions on topics identified by Working Groups, school districts and parents, as well as current trending topics, are included. A distinguished panel discussion is also part of the event. This allows the school district superintendents to meet with Fort Hood commanders, agency program managers and community members to gain knowledge of resources and programs available on Fort Hood.

The CYS School Liaison Officers are a wonderful resource and have access to a plethora of information. They are enthusiastic and stand ready to assist you in your quest to be an informed and involved parent. Thank you for making Fort Hood CYS your partner in education!
